PREFACE TO THE FIRST EDITION.

THESE Volumes contain all the information I have been able to collect concerning the British Enactments in force in the Native States in India.¹

2. The term “British Enactments,” as used in these volumes, includes—

- (I) the Enactments made by the British Legislature in exercise of the general jurisdiction which it possesses over its subjects and servants in all Native States, and
- (II) the Enactments made by or under the authority of the British Indian Executive Government in exercise of the special jurisdiction which it has acquired, usually over all persons, in certain Native States or places therein.

3. ²The distinction between these two classes of Enactments has been observed in classifying the British Enactments in force in the Native States dealt with in these volumes, the Enactments in force in each local area having been placed under separate heads according as they belong to one or other of these classes. Enactments which purport to be solely made under the authority of the Legislature, or which appear to be limited to the classes of persons with which the Legislature can deal, have been arranged under one head and styled “British-Indian Enactments;” whilst Enactments which purport to be made, in whole or in part, under the special authority of the Executive Government above described, or which do not appear to be limited to the classes of persons with which the Legislature can deal, have been arranged under a different head, having as its title the name of the particular place for which the Enactments have been made with the word "British" prefixed. Broadly speaking, the "British-Indian Enactments" are personal laws applicable only to British subjects or servants, whilst the other Enactments are territorial laws applicable to all persons in the particular places to which they respectively refer.

² There are certain exceptions to the general rules laid down in this paragraph, which are noticed in the body of the Lists.

4. The minor classification under each of these heads is identical, the Enactments being arranged, as far as possible, in separate lists, as they are of the nature of—

- (1) Principal Enactments, that is, Enactments made under the immediate authority of the Legislature or the Executive Government, consisting of—

A.—Enactments of the Legislature—

- (a) Statutes,
- (b) Acts of the Governor-General in Council¹;

B.—Enactments of the Executive Government—

- (a) Enactments of the British-Indian Legislatures applied,
- (b) Special Laws; or

- (2) Subordinate Enactments, that is, Enactments (Rules and Orders), made under authority conferred in this behalf by Principal Enactments.

5. "Special Laws" are new laws made by the Executive Government for places in which it has acquired special jurisdiction, while "Enactments of the British-Indian Legislatures applied” are, as their title indicates, existing British-Indian Enactments which have, by order of the Executive Government, been adopted, usually with certain modifications, as laws in such places. Though there is no material distinction between these two kinds of Enactments, it has been found convenient to arrange them in separate groups in these volumes.

6. A general classification of the British Enactments which may be made for the Native States in India, and a detailed classification of the various British Enactments actually in force in the Native States dealt with in each volume, which have been prepared in accordance with the above remarks, will be found in Statements Nos. I and II, prefixed to these volumes (pages xi and xii).

7. The Enactments which the various Native States may have made for their respective territories are beyond the scope of this work.

8. For the convenience of local officers, each volume contains (see Part I) the British Enactments in force generally in all Native States in India, as well as the Enactments in force locally in the particular Native States with which it deals.

9. Numerous references to Aitchison’s Treaties have been inserted, which will, it is hoped, add to the usefulness of these Lists. The revised edition of 1876 is the one referred to.

10. A short alphabetical index of names of places has been appended for convenience of reference.

11. In compiling the volumes—

(a) Rules and Orders of a temporary nature or conferring powers on persons by name have, as a rule, been omitted ; and

(b) Special Laws and Subordinate Enactments, which are not to be found in the Codes published by the Legislative Department, have, as a rule, been set out in extenso.

12. Mr. G. R. Ridge of the Legislative Department Office has assisted me in the preparation of these Lists, and Mr. F. G.

Wigley, the Officiating Under Secretary, has kindly undertaken to supervise the passing of the final proof through the Press and the insertion of such Enactments as may be issued after this date.

13. Lastly, it must be stated that these volumes are not authoritative, and that the Government of India is in no way responsible for their contents. They have been compiled by me from the Official Gazettes, supplemented by local information obtained through the Foreign Department. Though I have made them as complete and accurate as was possible, having regard to the materials at my disposal and the limited time which I have been at liberty to devote to the work, I am fully conscious of their many defects. At the same time I hope that notwithstanding their imperfections, the volumes will be found to be of some practical value to Political Officers and others desirous of obtaining information concerning the British Enactments in force in the Native States in India

J. M. MACPHERSON.

SIMLA ;

The 27th October 1890.

In his recent valuable work, "The Protected Native States of India," Mr. Lec-Warner states (see page 366), that if the reader "refers to the official Gazettes of the Indian Government he will find many scores of pages devoted annually to the judicial notifications published by the political offices of the Empire. The law relating to the Native States fills thousands of pages." The object of the work now being brought to completion has been to save the labour and trouble involved in referring to the official Gazettes for these Notifications by supplying information in a classified form as to their contents. Though the work only professes to contain lists of the Notifications in question, it will be found on examination that, except in the case of the two first volumes, which do not, as a rule, reproduce the subordinate Enactments, the whole of each Notification referred to in these volumes is set out in extenso either in the last column of the Lists or in the appendices, so that a reference to the Gazettes, even for the purpose of ascertaining the exact words of a Notification, has been rendered unnecessary. Indeed, if used in conjunction with the "Codes" published by the Legislative Department, which contain the Statutes, Acts, and Regulations mentioned in the Lists, these volumes ought to form a fairly complete handbook to the British Enactments now in force in the Native States of India.

The subject of the relations between the British Government and the Native States of India has of late been brought before the public not only in Mr. Lec-Warner's work above mentioned, but also in Mr. Tupper's no less valuable work, "Our Indian Protectorate." In both these volumes these relations have been treated of chiefly from a politico-historical point of view. In his earlier work, entitled "A Collection of Treaties, Engagements, and Sanads relating to India and neighbouring countries," of which a revised edition has recently been published, Sir Charles Aitchison dealt very fully and comprehensively with the same subject, mainly from the standpoint of our contractual relations towards these States. In these and the previous volumes of this work an attempt has been made to approach this subject from what may be described as its legal or jurisdictional aspect, the object being to show the extent to which British-made law applies to these Native States, and, though these volumes are practically little more than compilations of information which is available to any one who chooses to study the Gazettes, they will perhaps help to throw light on what has hitherto been a somewhat confusing branch of the subject.

PREFACE TO THE SECOND EDITION.

IN preparing for publication the second edition of this work one important alteration has been introduced which, it is hoped, will render it more useful for purposes of reference. In the first edition the Enactments were merely summarized and included in the lists, with the exception of certain special ones, which were reproduced in extenso in Appendices: in the present edition, however, all Enactments which have been issued by the Government of India have been reproduced in extenso, except in so far as they are to be found in the volumes of General Acts of the Governor-General in Council, or in one of the Provincial Codes. In such cases full references are given: and the chronological lists which formed the basis of the first edition are only retained in a simplified form to serve the purposes of a table or index. In its present form it is hoped that the work may be regarded as a not inadequate supplement to the General Acts of the Governor-General in Council and the Provincial Codes.

2. A general nominal index has been added at the end of the sixth Volume (the Western Indian Volume) for facility of reference.

3. Mr. Macpherson, the Secretary to the Government of India in the Legislative Department, who compiled the first edition, has kindly permitted me to consult him in matters regarding the general scheme of the work, and I have to express my obligations to him for his advice. I have also had the assistance of Mr. Ridge of the Legislative Department Office, who has been most useful in helping to prepare the volumes for Press.

PREFACE TO THE THIRD EDITION.

IN this, the third, edition of "British Enactments in force in Native States," the system of arrangement has been altered from that adopted by Mr. (now Sir John) Macpherson in the first edition. States in relation with the Government of India, with the Administered Areas situated in them, have been grouped (Volumes I-III) apart from those in relation with Local Governments (Volume IV), while one Volume (V) is devoted to Railways wherever situated. Again orders under Acts applied and under Local Laws have been separated from the rest of the enactments, and form Volumes II and III in the case of the first group of States, and Part II of Volume IV in the case of the second group, and Part II of Volume V in the case of railways. Lastly, for convenience of reference, orders relating to Courts have been entered under a separate sub-head in each chapter in Volumes I, IV, Part I, and V, Part I. In the Appendices have been collected all orders to which there are constant references in the body of the work, or which it is convenient to group together for purposes of comparison, such as orders relating to the appointment of Justices of the Peace, of Marriage Registrars, and of Registrars of Births and Deaths.

Each Volume states the law as in force on the 19th April 1913.

CHAPTER II.

BARODA.

The Baroda State consists of four divisions or Prants of which three lie in Gujarat and the fourth, known as the Amreli Prant, in Kathiawar. In the Okhamandal pargana of the Amreli Prant the Resident at Baroda and his Assistant at Dwarka exercise delegated jurisdiction over the Wagher tribe in all cases except those triable by a Magistrate of the 2nd class which are dealt with by the State Courts. On the other hand, while jurisdiction over British subjects, Europeans, Americans, and Government servants vests, as usual, in the political authorities, there are special arrangements for the exercise of jurisdiction by Baroda State Courts over Government servants.

The State was under the political control of the Bombay Government till 1874, when the political charge was taken over by the Government of India. For this reason some of the notifications in this Chapter issued under the authority of the Governor of Bombay in Council. On the transfer, the Resident's title was changed to that of Agent to the Governor-General, but the former style has recently been restored.

The only Administered Area in the State is the Cantonment of Baroda.

The Railway lands in the State which are subject to British jurisdiction form part of the Western Division of Railways enumerated in Volume V.

CHAPTER IV.

HYDERABAD.

The political relations between the Government of India and His Highness the Nizam are conducted through the Resident at Hyderabad.

Jurisdiction over European British subjects, Europeans, Americans and Government servants in the Hyderabad State vests, as usual, in the political authorities; but there is a special arrangement¹ with His Highness' Government whereby the State Courts exercise jurisdiction over European British subjects, Europeans and Americans in the employment of the State, other than those whose services have been lent by the Government of India, and a Magistrate of the State is empowered² by the Governor-General in Council to deal with cases against non-official European British subjects, Europeans and Americans.

Since the transfer of Berar in 1903 to the administration of the Chief Commissioner of the Central Provinces under the Agreement³ of 1902 with His Highness the Nizam, whereby it rests with the British Government to administer that area as they may deem desirable, and since the restoration to His Highness' Government in the same year of jurisdiction in the Hyderabad Contingent stations of Hingoli, Jalna, Mominabad and Raichur on their ceasing to be military stations, the Administered Areas in the Hyderabad State, which are under British jurisdiction exercised through the Resident, are :—

The Cantonment of Secunderabad, which includes the area previously known as the Hyderabad Contingent station of Bolarum.

The Cantonment (previously the Hyderabad Contingent station) of Aurangabad.

The Hyderabad Residency Bazars, and

The railway lands occupied by —

His Highness the Nizam's Guaranteed State Railway.

The Hingoli Branch Railway.

The Hyderabad-Godavari Valley Railway.

The North-West main line of the Madras and Southern Maratha Railway, and

¹ It is part of this arrangement that the Resident shall be informed of all such charges and that the Government of India reserve the right to require that in any particular case the accused shall be transferred for trial by a British Court.

² See notification No. 2402-I. B., dated the 21st June 1901, printed in Appendix IV.

³ Treaties, 4th Ed., Vol. IX, p. 174.

The South-East broad gauge main line of the Great Indian Peninsula Railway.

The other railway lands in the Hyderabad State, over which full and exclusive jurisdiction has been ceded to the British Government, namely, those occupied by the Barsi Light Railway, by the Dhond-Manmad Branch of the Great Indian Peninsula Railway, and by the metre gauge main line of the Madras and Southern Maratha Railway, are under the administration of the Government of Bombay.¹

The exercise of British jurisdiction in certain parts of the Cantonment of Secunderabad is qualified by the arrangement embodied in the following notification² :—

No. 178, dated the 22nd July 1889.—The following rules for regulating the payment of the expenses of complainants and witnesses in criminal cases, sanctioned by the Governor General in Council in 1873 are hereby published for the information and guidance of the Criminal Courts under this Administration:—

Payment of expenses of complainants and witnesses in Criminal Courts.

Under the provisions of section 544 of the Code of Criminal Procedure the Governor-General in Council has been pleased to pass and sanction the following rules for regulating the payment on the part of Government of the expenses of complainants and witnesses in cases coming before the Criminal Courts in the Hyderabad Assigned Districts.

2. The Criminal Courts are authorised to pay, at the rates specified below, the expenses of complainants or witnesses (1) in cases in which the prosecution is instituted or carried on by or under the orders or with the sanction of the Government, or any Judge, Magistrate, or any other public officer, or in which it shall appear to the presiding officer to be directly in furtherance of the interests of the public service; (2) in all cases entered in column 5 of the schedule appended to the Criminal Procedure Code as not bailable; (3) in all cases which are cognizable by the Police; and (4) of witnesses in all cases in which they are compelled by the Magistrate of his own motion to attend under the provisions of sections 540 of the Code.

3. European and East Indian witnesses, when summoned by a Criminal Court to give evidence, are to be allowed their actual expenses for carriage when the same are not in excess of six annas a mile. They are also to be allowed a sum not exceeding Rupees 2-8-0 a day for subsistence if they demand the same.

4. As a general rule, native witnesses of the better class as Patels, Panderpeshas, merchants, vakils, and persons of corresponding rank, as well as all witnesses who are in no way concerned in the case in which their evidence is given, but whose evidence is required for furthering the ends of justice (such as attesting witnesses to depositions and inquest reports, provided they can read and write), are to be allowed six annas a day as subsistence money, and they are also to receive railway and other travelling expenses that have been actually incurred by them, provided the same be reasonable.

5. Native witnesses of the class of cultivators and menials who would not under ordinary circumstances voluntarily incur any expense on account of special lodging when away from home are to be allowed subsistence money at the rate of four annas a day, and are also to receive railway and other travelling expenses actually incurred by them, provided the same be reasonable.

6. Peculiar cases (that is cases not coming under the operation of Rules 4 and 5) are to be dealt with according to their own merits and at the discretion of the Court from which subsistence money or travelling allowance is demanded,

7. When a witness lives in the same town or village in which the Court before which he is required to give evidence is situated, the Court may award him such sum not exceeding four annas a day as may compensate him for any loss he may have incurred by attendance upon the Court.

8. The foregoing instructions cancel that portion of the Resident's Book Circular No. 1 of 1882 addressed to the Sessions Judge, Hyderabad; Superintendent, Residency Bazars; Cantonment Magistrate, Sikanderabad; and the Superintendent of His Highness the Nizam's State Railway, which relates to subsistence money and travelling allowances for witnesses summoned in criminal cases.

Maintenance and custody of livestock and other moveable property under attachment by Civil Courts.

¹No. 87, dated the 12th August 1878.—The Resident is pleased, under ²section 269, Act X of 1877, to make the following rules for the maintenance and custody, while under attachment, of livestock and other moveable property :—

I.—Livestock.

When application is made to any Court for the attachment of livestock the Court may demand in advance, at rates to be fixed by it half-yearly, or oftener if necessary (with the sanction of the District Court), the amount requisite for the maintenance of the livestock from the probable time of attachment to the probable time of sale; or may, at its discretion, make successive demands for portions of such period.

2. The above rates will include cost of feeding, tending and conveyance, and all other charges requisite for the maintenance and custody of the livestock.

3. The attached livestock may, after seizure, be placed, at the discretion of the Court, in the custody of the judgment-debtor, or of the decree-holder, or of some headman, herdsman or other respectable person who will undertake to keep and maintain the livestock, subject to the orders of the Court. Except cases in which herdsmen are employed, the Court shall have power to require competent security from the depository, to the extent of the value of the said livestock, for its production in good condition when required. If the livestock be entrusted to any person other than the judgment-debtor, the amount or a part thereof paid by the decree-holder for the maintenance of the cattle, may, at the discretion of the Court, be delivered over to the custodian of the livestock to be used for their maintenance. The Court may at any time at its discretion, remove the cattle from the custody of any one person to that of any other person coming under the above descriptions.

4. The attaching officer shall, in every case, make a list and valuation of the attached livestock in the following form :—

Number of suit and names of parties.	Kind of livestock,	Colour distinguishing marks, and approximate age of livestock.	Condition and approximate value of livestock.	To whom livestock is entrusted, and what security taken.
1	2	3	4	5

² See now Section 128 (2) (b) of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (Act V of 1908) as applied supra p. 241.

And shall obtain thereto the acknowledgment of the person in whose custody the livestock are left, and if possible, of the parties to the suit and of one or two respectable inhabitants of the locality in attestation of the correctness of the list.

5. If the livestock be entrusted to any person other than the judgment-debtor, the produce, such as milk, eggs, etc., if any, may either be sold, as promptly as possible, for the benefit of the judgment-debtor, or may, at the discretion of the Court, be set off against the cost of maintenance of the said livestock.

II.—Heavy and bulky property.

6. When an application is made for the attachment of heavy or bulky articles, the Court may demand in advance such sum as it may seem requisite for the purpose of conveying the said articles from the place of attachment to the court-house, or to such other place as the Court shall appoint for its storage. But the Court may direct that such articles, after seizure, shall be entrusted, on such terms as it may think fit, to the judgment-debtor, or to some respectable person who is willing to undertake the custody thereof, or to an officer of the Court, to be kept in such place of safety as it may direct.

The attaching officer shall prepare an inventory of such articles attached, and shall obtain thereto the acknowledgment of the person in whose custody they are left, and, if possible, of the parties to the suit, and of one or two respectable inhabitants of the locality, in attestation of the correctness of the attachment list.

8. In determining whether such articles should be taken to the court-house, or should be deposited elsewhere, the probable cost of their carriage in proportion to their value should be taken into account.

III.—Light and conveniently portable property.

9. Light and conveniently portable articles of all kinds, and specially valuable property of small bulk, such as jewels, etc, shall, after seizure, be made over to an officer of the Court, to be kept in such place of safety as the court may direct.

KASHMIR AGENCY.

The Kashmir Agency comprises (a) the territories of His Highness the Maharaja of Kashmir and Jammu, including the feudatory State of Poonch and (b) the tributary States of Hunza, Nagar, Chilas, Ashkuman, Ghizar Koh and Yasin. The Political Agent in Gilgit is in immediate political charge of the Gilgit district of Kashmir and of the tributary States, in subordination to the Resident. An Assistant to the Resident at Leh is in subordinate political charge of Ladakh and Baltistan, and is ex-officio Joint Commissioner for the Central Asian trade route under the Treaty¹ of 1870. The rest of the Agency is in the direct political charge of the Resident.

In the territories of His Highness the Maharaja the political authorities possess the following jurisdiction :—

Criminal.—The Resident and his Assistants have powers to enquire into or try cases against Europeans (both British subjects and of other nationalities), Americans, Christians of European descent, Native Indian subjects of His Majesty when merely visiting the territories of His Highness or acting as servants of a European British subject, and British subjects accused of having committed offences conjointly with European British subjects.

The trial of Native Indian subjects who ordinarily dwell, or carry on business, or personally work for gain within His Highness' territories, ordinarily rests with the Courts of the Darbar. At the same time, any such person convicted by the State Courts has the right of making a representation to the Resident, who will address the Durbar if he considers that there is ground for interference.

Civil.—The Resident and his Assistants have powers to dispose of civil suits in which both parties are subjects of His Majesty, or the defendant is a European British subject, or the defendant is a Native Indian subject of His Majesty and at the time of the commencement of the suit does not ordinarily dwell or carry on business or personally work for gain within then territories of the Maharaja.

All other suits between subjects of His Majesty on the one hand and subjects of the Maharaja on the other hand are ordinarily triable in the Courts of the State.

Provision for the exercise of this jurisdiction is made in notification² No. 933-E., dated the 8th May 1891 : but for convenience sake a further set of

There are special rules² with regard to visits and residence in His Highness the Maharaja's territories of all persons other than those of Indian and Tibetan nationality, breach of which renders the offender liable to expulsion.

In the tributary States the jurisdiction of the political authorities extends to the people of the country, as well as to British subjects, Europeans and Americans, and Government servants, but in the case of the former is only exercised where it is necessary to supplement the usual tribal authority.

As Joint Commissioner for the trade route the Assistant to the Resident at Leh is vested with special jurisdiction as defined in the Rules³ framed under the Treaty of 1870.

There are no Administered Areas in the Kashmir Agency. The Railway lands which are subject to British jurisdiction are included in the North-Western Division of Railways enumerated in Part III of Volume V.

(4) In the exercise of the jurisdiction of a Court of Session conferred on him by these orders, the Political Agent in Gilgit may take cognizance of any offence as a Court of Original Criminal Jurisdiction without the accused person being committed to him by a Magistrate, and shall, when so taking cognizance of any offence, follow the procedure laid down by the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, for the trial of warrant-cases by Magistrates.

(5) A trial before the Political Agent in Gilgit in the exercise of the jurisdiction of a Court of Session conferred on him by these orders, may be without jury or aid of assessors.

(6) The Political Agent in Gilgit within all the said territories, and the Assistant Political Agent at Chilas within the limits of Chilas, shall exercise

The powers conferred relate to criminal proceedings in respect to all persons other than European British subjects and persons jointly charged with European British subjects. Further, in any case in which neither of the parties is a British subject the Political Officers may in their discretion refuse to exercise the powers now conferred upon them.

CHAPTER VI.

MYSORE.

At the rendition of Mysore in 1881, the conditions upon which the administration of the State was transferred to His Highness the Maharaja were embodied in an Instrument of Transfer¹, of which the following articles may be quoted here:—

9. The Maharaja of Mysore shall not object to the maintenance or establishment of British cantonments in the said territories whenever and wherever the Governor-General in Council may consider such cantonments necessary. He shall grant free of all charge such land as may be required for such cantonments and shall renounce all jurisdiction within the lands so granted.

15. If the British Government at any time desires to construct or work, by itself or otherwise, a railway in the said territories, the Maharaja of Mysore shall grant free of all charge such land as may be required for that purpose and shall transfer to the Governor-General in Council plenary jurisdiction within such land. * *

16. The Maharaja of Mysore shall cause to be arrested and surrendered to the proper officers of the British Government any person within the said territories accused of having committed an offence in British India for whose arrest and surrender a demand may be made by the British Resident in Mysore, or some other officer authorised by him in this behalf: and he shall afford every assistance for the trial of such persons by causing the attendance of witnesses required and by such other means as may be necessary.

17. Plenary criminal jurisdiction over European British subjects in the said territories shall continue to be vested in the Governor-General in Council and the Maharaja of Mysore shall exercise only such jurisdiction in respect to European British subjects as may from time to time be delegated to him by the Governor-General in Council.

19. All laws in force and rules having the force of law in the said territories when the Maharaja Chamrajendra Wadiar Bahadur is placed in possession thereof, as shown in the schedule hereto annexed, shall be maintained and efficiently administered, and except with the previous consent of the Governor-General in Council, the Maharaja of Mysore shall not repeal or modify such laws, or pass any laws or rules inconsistent therewith.

Agreeably with Article 9 His Highness the Maharaja, on the 5th April 1881, assigned to the exclusive management of the British Government the lands forming the Civil and Military Station of Bangalore.²

The railway lands in the Mysore State over which jurisdiction has similarly been ceded in accordance with Article 15 are included in the Southern Division of Railways enumerated in Part III of Volume V.

² See Aitchison's Treaties, Volume IX, 4th Edition, page 235. For the present boundaries of the Civil and Military Station, see notification No. 1527-I.A., dated the 26th April 1907, Gazette of India, 1907, Part I, page 306, and notification No. 595-I.A., dated the 7th February 1908, printed infra, p. 532.

The jurisdiction specifically reserved by Article 17 extends also to other Europeans, Americans, and Government servants, as in other Native States.¹

Article 19 has been cited on account of the restriction which it imposes ; but the laws thereby retained in force and the amendments subsequently introduced with the sanction of the Government of India are laws of the Mysore State, and as such are outside the scope of this work.

¹In the Kolar Gold Fields cases against Europeans and Americans are dealt with by a special Magistrate of the Mysore State, who is ordinarily appointed also by the Governor-General in Council to be a Justice of the Peace. All such charges, and the results of the trials, are reported to the Resident nature, the inam will be confirmed to the holders as a permanent and alienable property subject to payment of a quit-rent not exceeding half assessment. This quit-rent will be charged in commutation both of the service thus discontinued and the right of reversion possessed by Government. The mode and the rate of commutation will be determined on a consideration of the nature of the service, and how long ago it ceased to be rendered or enforced, and the circumstances attending it in each case.

A.—Those which are no longer required, or rendered.

IX. In the case of alienation of inams referred to in Rules VI and VII and their clauses, satisfactory proofs will be demande either from entries in the public accounts, reliable documents in possession of the inamdars, or from the admission of the original grantees, or their recognized descendants, or undisturbed possession for the last 12 years. On failure of all proof of the alienees' title, the inams will be fully assessed.

X. The extent and assessment of inams recorded by the Survey Department will be invariably adopted in the inam settlement of the surveyed taluks.

Survey, extent, and assessment to be adopted.

A.—In case of the Inam Commission outstripping the survey, the extent and assessment of inams given in the Inam Registers of 1810, or of a reliable subsequent account, will be adopted, leaving the excess to be charged after actual survey according to the course laid down in the following rule.

XI. In dealing with excess in inams, all excess over and above the rate of excess discovered in the Government lands of the village plus 10 per cent. will be charged with full assessment.

Treatment of excess in all descriptions of minor inams.

A.—If the excess above the area recorded in the accounts or in the "Sannad" is proved to be within the limits mentioned in the grant itself or a separate "Hadnama," and where no room for encroachment existed, and if it is also proved to have been in the uninterrupted enjoyment of the inamdar for the last 50 years, it will be regarded as a part of the original inam, and no additional charge will be made even if it happens to exceed the indulgence shown in the preceding clause.

Not to be charged if the excess is proved to be, a portion of the inam itself.

XII. The settlement will be made either with the registered holders of the inam, or where none are registered, with the head member of the family enjoying the inam, who, according to existing practice, is alone considered responsible to Government. But this rule will not interfere with the enjoyment of subordinate shares in the inams by the other members of the family, which will also be recorded on the register.

Inam settlement to be made with the registered holders, or with the head member of the family enjoying it.

XIII. When the inam has to all intents and purposes been entirely abandoned, there being no acknowledged owner in existence, or, if being in existence, he omits to come forward to claim it, and when the recorded possessor fails after due notice to appear to prove his title, Abandonment and non-appearance of inamdars how to be dealt with.

such inam will, in the first instance, be placed under attachment by the [Assistant Superintendent attached to the inam settlement]¹ and after the expiration of one year from the date of the notice will be held to be liable to be fully assessed to the public revenue.

XIV. The quit-rent to be imposed under the rules being a consideration required in return for an extension of rights, will be exclusive of, and in addition to, any jodi with which the land may be already charged, but the additional quit-rent will vary according to the value of the holder's rights, and will be calculated not on the full assessment of the land, but on the difference between the full assessment and the jodi already existing, which represents the net value of the land to the inamdar.

XV. The minimum rate of quit-rent to be charged will be 2 annas, and it will not be calculated in terms lower than 2 annas when the amount is less than one rupee; it will be charged in terms of 1 annas for sums between one and five rupees; in terms of 8 annas for sums between five and ten rupees; and in terms of one rupee when the due amount exceeds ten rupees.

XVI. Fractions will always be avoided in the quit-rent now imposed, and in the process of combining it with the old jodi.

XVII. Inams once converted into a permanent and alienable property under the rules will be subject to no further interference on the part of the Government, except such as may be necessary for the punctual realization of the quit-rent now charged, or the existing jodi thereon.

A.—Mysore being a Native State, the redemption of the existing jodi, or the present quit-rent, will not be permitted.

XVIII. Inams granted by the Commissioner, with or without the sanction of the Government of India, will be confirmed according to the terms of the grant without any new quit-rent; any excess, however, will be charged full rates minus 10 per cent.

A.—Grants made by the Mysore Government for a certain number of lives, or old inams restricted to one or more lives, will be made permanent and transferable by the payment of $\frac{1}{8}$ quit-rent in the first life, $\frac{1}{4}$ in the second and $\frac{1}{2}$ in the third and subsequent lives.

XIX. The term inam is to be understood to apply also to whole inam villages, whether held entirely free of land tax, or on a favourable quit-rent, or jodi, and such villages will be dealt with upon the same principles as are above prescribed for minor inams.

XX. On the validity of an inam being established by inquiry conducted in accordance with the foregoing rules, a title deed will at once be furnished under the signature of the Inam Commissioner acknowledging the title to the inam on behalf of the Commissioner for the Government of the Territories of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore, specifying in it the nature and terms of the tenure.

XXI.¹ After settlement has been once made by the Inam Commissioner according to the foregoing rules, it shall not be competent for any judicial courts [of the Civil and Military Station of Bangalore] to question the validity of his settlement, or the right to levy the quit-rent or annual payment imposed in commutation of the reversionary right of Government, and the concession now authoritatively made to make the inams permanent, heritable, and alienable.

Settlement so far as regards the right of Government to levy the annual quit-rent, and not to be questioned in any civil court.

XXII. Appeals against the Inam Commissioner's decisions shall be made direct to the [Resident in] Mysore.

XXIII. The Inam Commissioner, duly authorized by the Government to conduct the inam settlement, shall not be liable to be sued in any Judicial Court for any bond fide act done, or ordered to be made in his official capacity.

XXIV. All quit-rents payable under these rules shall be levied in the manner in which ordinary land revenue is recoverable, and the claim of Government to such quit-rents shall have precedence over any other debt, demand, whether in respect of mortgage, judgment, decree, execution, or attachment, or otherwise howsoever, against the lands, or the holder or holders thereof.

¹ A revised rule was sanctioned in the letter of the Government of India, No. 333, dated the 17th October 1868. But the original rule as here entered was restored by letter No. 1-R., dated the 4th January 1873.

XXV. The Inam Commissioner and his Assistants shall exercise the powers conferred upon the ordinary Revenue Courts of the province under the provisions of the Mysore Revenue Procedure Code.

XXVI. All inamdars shall be liable to contribute their quota of the payments levied from all revenue-paying occupiers of land towards the repairs of irrigation channels and tanks under which they hold land, and also towards such other local cesses as may be imposed by competent authority.

¹ No. 266, dated the 17th November 1877.—Under the sanction of the Government of India, conveyed in their letters Nos. 89-R. and 105-R., dated 18th September and 29th October 1877, respectively, the following rules providing for the restoration of inam lands unauthorizedly alienated from the religious or charitable institutions to which they were originally assigned, are published for general information :—

I. All inam lands granted to religious and charitable institutions, and for the maintenance of persons rendering service therein, will be confirmed and continued to them, so long as the conditions of the grant are duly fulfilled.

II. Whenever it is found that such lands are diverted from the object for which they were granted, by means of sale, gift, mortgage or otherwise, the following rules shall be observed :—

A.—Where such alienations were made prior to 31st January 1853, but within 50 years computing the period of possession up to 14th December 1867, the lands or villages so alienated will, if not restored voluntarily by the holder, be confirmed and subjected to a jodi of one-half the assessment the jodi or assessment so imposed being payable direct to the institution from which they were alienated.

B.—In the case of alienations made subsequent to 31st January 1853, a notice will be issued to the alienee or alienees requiring him or them to restore the lands to the institution to which they belong, within six months from the date on which the notice is served on the alienee or alienees or his or their agent or manager who may be in charge of the lands, and on default of compliance, the lands will be summarily resumed and restored to the institution by the revenue authorities under instructions from the Inam Superintendent.

C.—In the case of a simple mortgage or hypothecation of the inam lands, without possession, the transaction will be declared null and void in so far as it is intended to create a lien on the lands or to treat them as security for the loan advanced.

III. Lands held for fifty years and upwards, with or without titles, computing the period of possession up to 14th December 1867, will be confirmed to the holders on the terms prescribed in the Land Inam Rules, and will not be included in the title deed granted by the Inam Department to the religious institutions.

IV. The alienations, whether made in favour of disciples of the institution or others unconnected with it, will be treated alike, and disposed of under these rules.

[Mysore Gazette, 1877, Pt. I, p. 349.]

I. All ready money payments made in the Muzarai Department from the general revenues of the State, which were registered in the Tasdik Pattis prepared under the [late] Maharaja's orders in 1830-31, and not since authoritatively resumed, and also those subsequently renewed, or newly granted by the Mysore Commissioner, shall be held valid, whether supported by Sannads or otherwise.

II. All ready money allowances enjoyed by religious or charitable institutions or by individuals, which are exclusively charged to the Sayer and Abkari collections, and which are to be found in the Auditor's list, and not since authoritatively resumed, shall be held valid, whether supported by Sannads or otherwise.

III. —Allowances enjoyed by religious and charitable institutions, the payment of which is enforced by the officers of Government from cultivating ryots and merchants in the shape of taxes or contributions, shall not be noticed in the settlement.

2. In cases, however, in which a party claiming them produces the Sannads of the [late] Maharaja in support of the above-mentioned practice, the Government will continue the payment as a State charge, instead of allowing the present objectionable practice.

IV. After the validity of the allowance has been established, each case will be disposed of as hereafter explained under one or other of the following clauses :—

- A.—Grants made for the support of religious and charitable institutions, and for the maintenance of the parties therein rendering service.
- B.—Subsistence or personal grants known under the several designations of Varshaganams, Nagad Bhatmanyams, Yomias, Nonparvarsh, and Jaghirs, etc., granted for the subsistence of the holder.
- C.—Grants made to village servants, either as the whole or partial payments for the remuneration of their services rendered direct to the State, except those of Shanbhogs and Patels, brought on the regular establishment under the head of paid servants.
- D.—Political pensions or allowances made to dispossessed Poligars under the name of Poligar pensions, and to others similarly situated.
- E.—Superannuation pensions paid to retired servants of Government for meritorious service.

V. Inams coming under clause D of the foregoing rule will not be taken into consideration in the Muzarai settlement.

2. Superannuation pensions will be allowed to be commuted, however, at the request of the party, by the payment of a lump sum once for all, as provided in Rule X, clause 5.

VI. All ready money grants falling under clause A. of Rule IV, whether supported by Sannads or otherwise, will be continued so long as the institutions are efficiently maintained, and service therein properly rendered.

VII.—Personal or subsistence grants falling under its clause B will be disposed of according to the terms of the Sannad, or, in its absence, according to the hitherto existing and recognized practice in the province.

2. Grants of money supported by Sannads, in which the hereditary character of the grant is expressly mentioned, are to be continued without reduction to his present holder, his heirs, male or female, in direct succession, to undivided brothers and cousins, and to persons regularly adopted according to the Hindu Law.

3. In the absence of the Sannads, if the allowance can be satisfactorily established either by other documents in the possession of the inamdar, or by Purniah's Muzarai accounts, as having descended in hereditary succession and subsequently renewed on that account by the [late] Maharaja and the present Government, it will be continued without reduction to its holder and his heirs defined in the foregoing clause.

4. Where either no express mention of the term hereditary, or express limitation to one life, is made in the Sannad, the allowance will be gradually eliminated in two lives by a reduction of one-half at the end of each lapse occurring after the present holder, who will have the benefit of enjoying the full amount during his life-time.

5. Where the grant expressly limits the allowance to the life of the present holder, it will be continued to him only, and lapse to the State at his death.

6. In cases of extreme indigence and personal defects, such as loss of sight or limbs, etc., incapacitating the successor to earn a livelihood, it will be competent to the Inam Commissioner to make a recommendation for the continuance of the whole or a portion of the allowance to him during his life-time to prevent the distress that would arise from the sudden stoppage of the allowance.

VIII. Allowances specially ordered by the Mysore Commissioner to be continued to certain individuals till they attain their majority will cease when they reach the age of 21 years.

IX. In the case of existing alienees the allowance will be continued during the life-time of the present holders as an indulgence on the production of satisfactory proofs of alienation, but will lapse to the State on their death.

X. Option will be allowed to the holders of ready money grants falling under clauses 2, 3, and 4 of Rule VII, to commute their money allowance into grants of land. The Government are willing to accept the commutation on terms advantageous to the inamdar varying according as the land selected happens to be waste or cultivated, or of good or bad quality, or, in the case of wet lands, with reference to their position and nature of the source of irrigation.

2. Allowances thus commuted into land belonging to religious or charitable institutions and of their servants will be continued under the Land Inam Rule No. V.

3 Inamdars holding allowances under clauses 2 and 3 of Rule VII, which are permitted to be commuted into land, will be allowed to convert their inam into permanent and alienable property at rates of quit-rent vaying according to their position with regard to heirs — $\frac{1}{3}$ th quit-rent in the case of persons having competent heirs defined in clause 2, $\frac{1}{4}$ th in the case of terminable heirs, such as a wife, or widowed daughter, or daughters-in-law, and $\frac{1}{2}$ if none at all.

4. Inamdars holding allowances under clause 4 of Rule VII, which are permitted to be commuted into land, will be allowed to redeem it on $\frac{1}{3}$ rd assessment.

XI. Allowances which are paid in kind from the gross outturn of the village, previous to the division of crop between the Government and the ryat under the battai system, shall now be commuted into money payments, and continued according to the terms of the Sannads, or other authoritative documents, whether for life or in hereditary succession.

2. Inamdars whose hereditary grain allowances are thus commuted into money grants of hereditary nature will be allowed the indulgence under Rule X to convert them into grants of land, and to make them alienable and transferable property under its clauses 3 and 4.

XIII. Allowances in kind paid in sandalwood and cardamoms will now be commuted at the average price for five years, and money payments continued to the recipients according to the terms of the grant and under the circumstances of succession referred to in Rule VII.

2. In the case of hereditary grants, the provisions of clause 2 of Rule XI will also be extended to this description of inamdars.

XIV. Certificates in the appended form under the Inam Commissioner's official seal and signature will be granted in acknowledgment of the settlement of these ready money allowances.

XV. Settlement will be made with the head member of the family. His consent shall be held to be sufficient for the commutation of the grant into its equivalent in land, or for a lump payment. Registration of the shares of the several co-partners will, however, be made in the register which will be drawn up in the annexed form, which will also contain a column for the inamdar's description.

XVI. In this settlement fractions of annas will be omitted by raising it either to the higher or reducing it to the lower figure, according as it happens to be above or below half of an anna.

- (1) Stones of 1 to 2 cubits in length half buried in the ground and the exposed portion whitewashed.
- (2) Mounds of earth or stones 8 cubits long, 4 cubits broad at bottom, and $\frac{3}{4}$ cubit at top $2\frac{1}{4}$ cubits high.

2. Each corner of a field or survey number should be defined by two mounds or by 3 stones as shewn in the subjoined examples.*

3. When the interval between adjoining boundary marks placed at the corners of numbers, exceeds 25 and falls short of 50 Gunta chains in length, there should be a single mound or one stone in place of it, about the middle of the interval and on the line of boundary, but when it exceeds the above, there should be a mound or stone set up at every 20 chains along the line of boundary. In addition to these marks there should be a stone at every large bend or angle in the line of boundary.

4. When a number is bounded on any side by a nullah, river, canal, hedge, embankment or stone-wall, no boundary marks are required on that side, and any cultivator, who may have good reasons for wishing to do so, should be permitted to form a new hedge, ditch, canal, embankment or stone-wall along any side of a number hitherto defined by boundary marks

5. In low situations liable to be flooded by the over-flow of nullahs or rivers and in very rainy climates where the earthen mounds would be liable to be washed away during the monsoon, stones are more suitable than mounds of earth. In any of these places and no others, the taluk officers are at liberty to recommend the † stones of double the length defined in the 1st rule (in place of earthen mounds) half sunk in the ground.

6. At the annual inspection of field boundary marks enjoined by 23rd of the Survey Rules, when a mound is found to be not less than one cubit in height, it is to be considered in good repair, but when it has sunk below this height it is to be considered in want of repair, and is to be raised to the height of $2\frac{1}{4}$ cubit, as required by Rule 1, and to be daubed with whitewash, during the course of the annual inspection.

* Not re-printed.

† Read "the use of."

7. When more boundary marks than are required by Rules 2, 3, and 4 are found on any line of boundary, so many of them as may be in excess are to be allowed to fall to ruin, and are not to be repaired at all.

8. When any mound requiring repair is found to be of greater length than 8 cubits, then a portion of it only of this length is to be repaired, and the remainder is to be left untouched.

9. The village officers of every village, in which mounds have been erected should be required to keep 3 rods, respectively 8, 4 and $2\frac{1}{2}$ cubits long to measure the length, breadth and height of the marks, and these rods should be taken to the field, at all field boundary mark inspections.

10. In the case of dry crop land, a strip of 2 to 3 cubits in width must be allowed to remain unploughed between adjoining marks in order that it may become overgrown with grass and bushes, so as to form a distinct and easily recognizable boundary to the number. Rice and garden lands have usually well defined boundaries, such as banks or hedges, but when they have not, a strip of one cubit in width should be left unploughed to connect adjoining marks and constitute the boundary. And where the village limits have been defined at the time of survey by double lines of boundary marks, the intermediate strips of land are to remain unploughed.

11. Repairs to boundary marks in khalast or Government uncultivated lands are to be made by the taluk officers at the expense of Government, unless the [Collector] of the District is satisfied that the repairs would be as effectually and more cheaply made by the purchaser to whom the grazing of this land is sold under the 14th, 15th and 16th Survey Rules, in which case a clause requiring this to be done should be included among the conditions of the sale. When the former course is adopted, the purchasers of waste should be freed from all responsibility whatever connected with the boundary marks as the sale of grazing numbers would be injured by attaching this responsibility to them.

12. To provide funds for the repair of boundary marks to Government uncultivated lands the [Collector] is authorised to disburse from the Treasury annually a sum not exceeding Rs5 for every 1,000 acres of Government unoccupied waste land, or 5 per cent of the total amount realized and credited to Government from the grazing of such lands, whichever may be the larger amount and dispose of it for the repair of the boundary marks therein as directed in clause 2 of the following rule, or as may be otherwise ordered from time to time.

113. In taluks where the boundary marks in Government unoccupied waste land are very numerous or when for any reason the allowance of a larger sum than Rs. 5 for each 1,000 acres of waste land may appear necessary, the [Collector] may * * disburse the sum of Rs. 10 for every 1,000 acres of Government unoccupied waste land or 10 per cent. of the amount realized from the grazing of such lands, whichever may be the larger amount.

Clause 2. The amount allowed for the repair of boundary marks in Government unoccupied waste land will be paid on the 1st January of each year, or on whatever other date may be ordered, to the Patel of the village who will be held responsible for the maintenance in due order of the boundary marks.

Clause 3. Occupants of land impinging on Government unoccupied waste land are responsible for the maintenance in due repair of all the marks which divide their land from Government unoccupied waste land, and the village community are also similarly responsible for all the marks demarcating the boundaries of the free grazing lands assigned to their village. In case there should be any failure in the execution of their duty by occupants of land, or by the village community in free grazing lands, the necessary work will be executed by the Patel and charged for at a rate not exceeding 2 annas for each mark, the total amount of cost being levied rateably from the occupants and inamdars in the village in proportion to the survey assessment of their lands.

14. The ryots are not to be allowed to dig out earth close around the boundary marks for their repair; they are to leave space of 2 cubits in breadth all round the mark untouched so as to prevent injury to the mounds from water lodging in the cavities from which the earth for the repair is taken.

15. The [Collector] of the District is personally to examine the boundary marks of some of the numbers of several villages in each taluk, as soon as possible after the completion of the examination by taluk officers, such as Amildar, Peishkar or Sheristadar, and the Superintendent of the division is to mark off several numbers from the village registers for examination by his Revenue Sheristadar or any other high officer of his establishment.

¹No. 198, dated the 9th February 1870.—The following revised Survey Mysore Survey Guarantee¹ is applicable to the taluks, in the Province of Mysore, already brought under the operation of the Survey Settlement, and is published for general information, in supersession of all Guarantees previously promulgated.

Mysore Government Guarantee.

Notice is hereby given to the occupants and cultivators of Government lands in the villages of the taluk in which the Survey Rules have been promulgated, that the rates of assessment introduced by the Revenue Survey in the year - , are guaranteed as follows :—

I. The assessment now imposed by the Revenue Survey on all dry crop lands, and on lands watered solely from wells, will not be raised for years, viz., from the year to

II. During this period dry crop land which may be converted into wet crop solely at the cost of occupiers or cultivators, will not be subjected to any extra assessment whatever, nor will any extra tax 'bab' or patti be imposed on account of fruit or other trees planted hereafter by occupiers or cultivators, or on account of superior crops being grown.

III. If a well is dug by the cultivator, or a water-course (kalve) made from a stream the water of which is not the produce of a work constructed at the expense of Government, no additional assessment will be imposed.

IV. Government reserves the right of prohibiting wells being dug, or water courses (kalves) being made when they interfere with the storage of the water in [a work constructed by Government. This right of prohibition may be enforced in relation to any particular work under the orders of the [Resident in Mysore]* *.

V. If Government afford an additional supply of water by the construction of new works or by the improvement of existing works, the right of imposing an additional assessment upon land benefiting by the increased supply of water, is reserved to Government.

VI. It is imperative on the owners and occupiers of land lying under tanks and works, the property of Government, other than those under the direct management of the Irrigation Department to maintain the upkeep of such tanks and works after they have been brought up to standard. In case such upkeep shall not be duly maintained, it shall be competent to Government to maintain the upkeep of such tanks and works, and the cost of the same shall be rateably distributed amongst the ryots and inamdars according to the survey valuation of their respective holdings, and such amount shall be recovered as regular revenue demand.

VII. When small tanks (or Guntes) included within the boundaries of occupied dry crop survey numbers, shall be restored by the occupiers or cultivators of such numbers, no additional assessment will be imposed during the currency of this settlement, i.e., for years from the year to .

VIII. The collection of grain levies ("Aya") by patels and Shanbhogs is abolished by the Survey Settlement, but the existing practice of payment of such grain levies to minor village servants, thalari, thoti, nirganti, etc., is not interfered with by the Survey Settlement.

Forests and Woods.

IX. In Government reserved forests the disposal of all wood of any description and the grazing right, is vested in the Forest Department.

X. To each village a certain portion of land is assigned at the survey settlement as free grazing land for common use. Excepting the (9) nine reserved descriptions of timber, according to the list in the margin, all wood in these common lands is reserved for the use of the villagers under such rule as may from time to time be issued by the [Resident in Mysore]. Timber of the reserved kinds in these common lands shall be at the sole disposal of the Forest Department.

XI. In the case of land already occupied at the time of the survey settlement, or taken up for occupation at, or after, that settlement, all wood shall be made over to the occupant on such terms as the settling officer may arrange, excepting (9) nine reserved descriptions mentioned in the preceding paragraph. The disposal of the wood of these reserved kinds shall be vested in the Forest Department up to one year from the date of the settlement, or from the date of the survey number being taken up; if taken up after the settlement, should the Forest Department not remove the wood within the above mentioned period of one year, it shall, excepting sandalwood, become the exclusive property of the occupant, to whom also any wood henceforward growing in the survey number in question, excepting sandalwood, shall exclusively belong.

XII. In all unoccupied assessed or unassessed lands trees of the (9) nine reserved kinds are the exclusive property of Government, but trees of the unreserved kinds may be used by the general public under the provision of the Forest Rules.

Local Funds.

XIII. As the plough tax and all extra cesses on land of whatever kind have been absorbed in the revised assessment of the Revenue Survey, the [Resident in Mysore] will impose for the full term of this settlement, on all land, in addition to the Survey assessment (according to the survey valuation of each ryot's holding) which will be devoted to the construction and repairs of roads, to educational purposes, and to such other local objects as may be deemed necessary.

¹ XIV. The Irrigation Cess having been abolished as a separate levy of one anna in the rupee on the assessment of wet lands, it will be hereafter merged in and collected with the ordinary assessment of such lands, and at the settlement of each taluk a lump sum equivalent to the amount of the cess so merged in the assessment will be set apart by the Settlement Officer out of the annual revenue of the taluk to form the "District Irrigation Fund" which will be administered by the District Committee, in the same way as the Ordinary Local Fund for the repair, improvement and reconstruction of works of irrigation within the taluk.

XVI. Whatever sum may be assigned, as above, at the settlement of a taluk, as the quota of the "District Irrigation Fund," will remain as the fixed allotment for this purpose during the currency of the settlement.

¹ XVII. The Irrigation Cess will similarly merge in the future Survey valuation of all wet lands held in inam whether in Government villages or in whole inam villages and $\frac{1}{17}$ of such valuation will be collected similarly to a jodi, but under the designation of "Equivalent of the Irrigation Cess," separately from, and in addition to the quit-rent leviable on such lands or villages, and be carried to the account of the "District Irrigation Fund."

¹ XVIII. Kayamgutta and Sarvamanya villages shall pay Local Fund at the rate of one anna in the rupee, the former at the fixed Kayamgutta rent, and the latter on the recorded value of the inam. Where such villages have been surveyed, the same course will be followed as that laid down for inam holdings in the preceding section. Where "they have not been surveyed, the equivalent of the irrigation cess" will be levied under that designation at the rate of one anna in the rupee on the revenue derived from the wet lands under cultivation within their limits as certified to by the holders of such villages and the amount so realised will be carried to the account of the District Irrigation Fund.

When an alleged misconduct is so reported to the Resident or otherwise comes to his notice, whether the misconduct is with reference to proceedings before his own Court or a subordinate Court, the Resident may order the Public Prosecutor, or an Advocate specially authorised by the Resident in this behalf, to draw up a formal charge, setting forth concisely and exactly the alleged misconduct and may either himself inquire into such charge, or direct the Judge of a subordinate Court to do so. The Public Prosecutor or the Advocate so authorised shall prosecute the charge on behalf of Government. A copy of the charge shall be sent to the said legal practitioner, together with a notice that on a day to be therein appointed, such charge will be taken into consideration. Such copy and notice shall be served upon the legal practitioner at least ten days before the day so appointed. On such day, or any subsequent day to which the enquiry may be adjourned, the Court shall receive and record all evidence properly adduced in support of the charge or by the legal practitioner, and shall proceed to adjudicate upon the charge.

18. If the Judge is the Judge of a subordinate Court and finds the charge established, and considers that the legal practitioner should be suspended or dismissed, or that his certificate should be cancelled in consequence, he shall record his finding and the grounds thereof, and shall report the same to the Resident's Court, and that Court shall proceed to acquit, suspend, dismiss, or cancel the certificate of, the legal practitioner.

Tables of the fees so fixed shall be published in the Gazette of India.¹

Provided that the rules at present in force in respect of such fees shall be deemed to have been made under this rule, until they are superseded by new rules.

27. No agreement entered into by any legal practitioner with any person retaining or employing him, respecting the amount and manner of payment for the whole or any part of any past or future services, fees, charges or disbursements in respect of business done, or to be done, by such legal practitioner, shall be valid, unless it is made in writing signed by such person, and is, within fifteen days from the day on which it is executed, filed in the District Court, or in some Court in which some portion of the business in respect of which it has been executed, has been, or is to be, done.

28. Where a suit is brought to enforce any such agreement, if the agreement is not proved to be fair and reasonable, the Court may reduce the amount payable thereunder, or order it to be cancelled, and the costs, fees, charges and disbursements in respect of the business done to be ascertained in the same manner as if no such agreement had been made.

29. Such an agreement shall exclude any further claim of the legal practitioner beyond the terms of the agreement with respect to any services, fees, charges or disbursements in relation to the conduct and completion of the business in respect of which the agreement is made, except such services, fees, charges or disbursements, if any, as are expressly excepted by the agreement.

30. A provision in any such agreement that the legal practitioner shall not be liable for negligence, or that he shall be relieved from any responsibility to which he would otherwise be subject as such legal practitioner, shall be wholly void.

31. Any person who practises in any Court in contravention of the provisions of rule 2 shall be liable, by order of such Court, to a fine not exceeding ten times the amount of the stamp required by these rules for an Advocate's or Pleader's certificate, as the case may be, and in default of payment, to imprisonment in the civil jail for a term which may extend to six months. He shall also be incapable of maintaining any suit for, or enforcing any lien with respect to, any fee or reward for, or with respect to, anything done or any disbursement made by him as an Advocate or Pleader whilst he has been contravening the provisions of rule 2.

32. Any legal practitioner who has been suspended or dismissed, or whose certificate has been cancelled, under these rules, and who, during such suspension, or after such dismissal or cancellation, practises as an Advocate or Pleader in any Court, shall be liable, by order of such Court, to a fine not exceeding five hundred rupees, and, in default of payment, to imprisonment in the civil jail for a term which may extend to six months.

33. Any legal practitioner who fails to deliver up his certificate as required by rule 25 shall be liable, by order of the Resident, to a fine not exceeding two hundred rupees, and, in default of payment, to simple imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months.

(2) No person's name shall be included in any such list until he shall have had an opportunity of showing cause against such inclusion.

(3) A copy of every such list shall be kept hung up in every Court to which the same relates.

CHAPTER IX.

RAJPUTANA.

The Rajputana Agency comprises five subordinate Political Agencies entrusted with the immediate political charge of the States and Chiefships named below :—

Agency.	States and Chiefships.
Mewar Residency ¹	Udaipur (Mewar). Banswara (including Kushalgarh). Dungarpur. Partabgarh. Shahpura.
Jaipur Residency	Jaipur ² Kishengarh. Lawa. Tonk. ³
Western Rajputana States Residency.	Jodhpur (Marwar). Bikaner. Jaisalmer. Sirohi.
Eastern Rajputana States Agency.	Alwar. Bharatpur. Dholpur. Karauli.
Haraoti Agency	Jhalawar. Kotah.

In 1912 the Bundi State was withdrawn from the Haraoti Agency to the political control of the Agent to the Governor-General exercised through an Assistant stationed at Deoli.

¹ The Gangapur pargana of Gwalior and the Nandwar pargana of Indore are also in the Mewar Residency.

² The Jaipur Durbar exercise jurisdiction, e.g., in heinous offences and important civil suits in the pargana of Kot-Putli which the Raja of Khetri, a feudatory of Jaipur, holds as a fief of the British Government. But the latter reserve the power as suzerain to intervene should this arrangement cease to be satisfactory.

³ The outlying parganas of Chhabra, Pirawa and Sironj were withdrawn from the political charge of the Resident at Gwalior and the Political Agents in Malwa and Bhopal, respectively, in 1910.

The only jurisdiction exercised by political officers in the States of Rajputana is in respect of British subjects, Europeans and Americans, and Government servants, except as follows :—

- (a) The Chief of Shahpura is required to report to the Resident all cases of heinous crime, involving the punishment of death or imprisonment for life, and to dispose of them in accordance with his advice.¹
- (b) In the Chiefship of Lawa the Resident tries all heinous offences, and appeals lie to him from the decisions of the Chief in all except petty civil suits.²
- (c) The Chief of Nimrana, a feudatory of the Alwar State, exercises "civil and criminal jurisdiction within his estate, subject only to such conditions as the British Government be pleased to lay down from time to time for the guidance of Chiefs of a like position and status."³
- (d) In the Salt Sources of Sambhar, Didwana, Luni, and Pachbhadra situated in the States of Jaipur and Jodhpur, the British Government has acquired jurisdiction in all matters connected with the manufacture, sale and removal of salt, and the prevention of unlicensed manufacture and smuggling.⁴
- (e) The Courts of Vakils established in the different Agencies for the disposal of cases of an inter-jurisdictional character are guided by the local Political Officers, to whom all decisions are submitted for confirmation. Appeals lie to the Agent to the Governor-General, whose confirmation is also required for all sentences of death or of imprisonment for a term exceeding seven years.

A similar jurisdiction was acquired at Phalodi in 1879 by agreement with the Jodhpur Durbar: but manufacture was discontinued there in 1892 and the source was finally closed in 1897. The Luni source has been closed since 1887. A small preventive force of the Northern India Salt Department is stationed there, and persons illicitly collecting salt are prosecuted in the Courts of the Jodhpur State.

The following Administered Areas in Rajputana are subject to British jurisdiction, namely :—

SIKKIM AND BHUTAN. .

The political charge of the Sikkim and Bhutan States was amalgamated in one Agency in 1905, and was transferred to the control of the Government of India from that of the Government of Bengal with effect from the 1st April 1906.

In Sikkim the Political Agent tries all criminal charges against British subjects, Europeans or Americans, while in civil suits it is optional with British subjects to have recourse to the Political Agent's Court or to the State Courts.

Under the ¹Bengal Eastern Frontier Regulation, 1873 (V of 1873), the frontier of the Darjeeling District with Sikkim and the frontiers of the Jalpaiguri, Goalpara, Kamrup and Darrang Districts with Bhutan have been constituted "the Inner Line"² which no one, except Government officers on duty and ³persons of Indian, Nepalese, Bhutanese or Tibetan nationality, may cross from the British side without a pass from the Deputy Commissioner of the District. The Political Agent is empowered to control the movements of persons entering or remaining in the States in contravention of the Regulation and of the rules in force thereunder and to compel them to return to British India where they will be liable to the penalties prescribed by the Regulation for such infringement.

There are no Administered Areas and no railways in the Agency.
